

The F.A. Johnson Consulting Group, Inc., provided the Demographic and Real Estate Market Analysis, to support detailed site evaluation of all residential public and commercial property within the Sand Hills Community. The Team then developed a questionnaire to be handed out to the residents participating in the workshop. The goal was to gather opinions on the types of new development, the character of new architecture, and the development goals of the community in an achievable and feasible action plan.